

Arkansas PROMISE Usual Services List

Arkansas Department of Career Education – This department offers job skills and career education for youth, adults and persons living with disabilities.

Adult Education & Literacy – The Adult Education programs are offered free of charge through 53 Adult Education Centers. Contact a local Adult Education Center if you want to improve your basic educational skills, such as math, reading and writing. See attached list of local offices.

Arkansas Literacy Councils Contact your local Literacy Council if you want a tutor to help you with basic educational skills, such as reading and writing. See attached list of local offices.

Arkansas Rehabilitation Services – Contact ARS if you need vocational rehabilitation (VR) services. VR services include: counseling about the kind of jobs you might be qualified for; training for jobs available in your area; job placement; devices or equipment to help you accomplish the functions of a job like keyboards, arm supports, or screen readers; and a job coach to help you learn and remember the functions of a job. ARS can provide services to students with disabilities transitioning from high school to post-secondary education, training or employment; eligible students may receive tuition assistance. Clients that are deaf or hard of hearing receive services through the ARS Services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (SDHH). List of local offices attached.

Arkansas Career Training Institute – The Arkansas Career Training Institute (ACTI), is a 24-hour, 7-day-a-week residential facility with the capacity to accommodate up to 320 residential students. ACTI provides counseling and case management, vocational assessment and evaluation, vocational training, employability skills, recreation and student living services, behavior enhancement and social skills development, psychological and medical services, and job placement. ACTI also provides adult reading, math and writing classes, driver's education classes, and career readiness training. ACTI is located at 105 Reserve, Hot Springs, Arkansas 71901, the phone number is: (501) 624-4411.

Department of Workforce Services – Contact DWS if you need help finding work in your area, training for the type of jobs available in your area, certification for workplace skills to show to employers, or to apply for unemployment insurance benefits. You can also contact DWS for TANF benefits, which is Temporary Assistance for Needy Families. TANF includes time-limited cash assistance to needy families with children, work training for parents, assistance transitioning off of this cash benefit, intensive counseling and services such as child care and transportation assistance. A list of local offices is attached.

Arkansas Work Force Centers – Contact a local workforce center if you need to know what jobs are available in your area, job training, or help with resume writing and job interviews. These centers also offer youth a summer work program, work experience, and other educational opportunities. A list of local offices is attached.

Arkansas Department of Human Services – Each County has at least one local DHS office. A list of local DHS offices is attached. Contact your local DHS office if you need service in any of the following areas:

Contact your local DHS office if you need help applying for state-funded or subsidized health insurance, applying for food stamps, applying for help paying utility bills, or emergency assistance.

Contact your local DHS office if you need help for children at risk of being abused, neglected or have serious emotional problems, or help with foster care, adoptions and information on strengthening families.

Division of Developmental Disabilities Services – Contact DDS if you or your family needs independent case management, help finding community providers, require integrated day care, need to apply for a Medicaid waiver, or need information about the state’s Human Development Centers. Call (501) 683-0870 or visit the website at humanservices.arkansas.gov/dds/pages/default.aspx

DDS-Children Services – The nurses, social workers and medical secretaries at DDS Children’s Services can help you find help for children with disabilities and chronically-ill children. You may also receive case-management or assistance paying for some services. Call (501) 682-8670

Division of Services for the Blind – Contact DSB if you are blind or severely visually impaired and need help with training or education, job placement, vocational counseling and evaluation of your skills and interests. Call (501) 682-5463 or TDD: (501) 682-0093.

Community Mental Health Centers – Contact your local center if you need therapy, group therapy, drug addiction prevention or treatment, or additional support for your mental, behavioral or emotional health or for your family. A list of Community Mental Health Centers is attached.

The Community Health Centers – Contact your local community health center if you or anyone in your family needs primary medical care, preventive medical care, dental care, or mental health care, regardless of your ability to pay. A list of Community Health Centers is attached.

Arkansas Department of Health – Each County in Arkansas has a local County Health office. Contact your local County Health Unit if you need medical care, immunizations for you and your children, screening for children’s health problems, testing for infectious diseases, help with quitting tobacco, nutrition assistance and education through WIC, or information on living healthy. A list of Local Health Units is attached.

Centers for Independent Living – Contact your local CIL if you need information on independent living, referrals to community resources, training on independent living skills, individual advocacy, peer counseling or information about benefits and work incentives.

Arkansas People First – Contact People First if you need help advocating for change in your community or want to learn more about self-advocacy. Self-advocacy involves standing up for yourself, speaking for yourself and deciding for yourself. APF meets regularly by phone and local chapters meet around the state. Adult members of APF provide mentoring and are role models for youth with disabilities. www.arkansaspeoplefirst.org. (501) 268-7986.

Arkansas Support Network – Arkansas Support Network (ASN) provides support and assistance to a limited number of families who have children with disabilities living in the home with them. ASN helps enable children, even those with very severe disabilities and health care needs, to live in their homes and participate in the life of their community. ASN’s job is to assist families to make their own service decisions, not to control. 6836 Isaac’s Orchard Rd, Springdale, AR 72762. www.supports.org. (479) 927-4100.

Disability Rights Center of Arkansas – DRC services are provided free of charge. Contact DRC if you have complaints about other agencies, if you need legal representation, or if you think a state agency is discriminating against you or your child because of disability. www.arkdisabilityrights.org. (800) 482-1174.

Governor's Council on Development Disabilities – Contact the DD Council if you need help addressing barriers in systems, agencies or communities. The Council's main objective is to improve the independence and productivity of people with developmental disabilities and to ensure their integration and inclusion into the community. www.ddcouncil.org. (501) 661-2589 or (800) 462-0599 ext.661-2589.

Each of the programs listed has specific eligibility requirements. Each agency will need to determine that you meet the qualifications before they can provide services. Even if one agency or program finds that you qualify to participate, other programs may have different requirements and you might not qualify for all of the services listed.
